Canadian College of Performing Arts Broadway Jazz Workshops Breakdown

The Canadian College of Performing Arts is thrilled to offer three Broadway Jazz workshops to all participants of the BC Performing Arts Provincial Festival. Join CCPA staff member Alison Roberts for an hour-long workshop focused on technique, style, dynamics, and discovering how to really tell a story through movement. Each class will consist of a warmup, technical exercises, and choreography from a hit Broadway Musical. Whether you are a singer/actor interested in learning the basics of movement or an advanced dancer looking to challenge yourself with a new genre, we have a class for you!

What to wear:

- Comfortable clothes you can move in.
- Character shoes are welcomed but not required. Running shoes and Jazz shoes are great as well.

Broadway Jazz Workshops

Workshop Instructor

Alison Roberts

Alison grew up dancing and performing in Victoria BC. She is a graduate of the Canadian College of Performing Arts, the Harbour Dance Center Intensive Training Program, and the Banff/Citadel Professional Theatre Program. She also holds a BFA and a Minor in Business with Distinction from the University of Victoria.

Her select theatrical credits include West Side Story (Vancouver Opera, Rainbow Stage, Citadel Theatre), Spamalot (Arts Club), Beauty and the Beast (Arts Club), Crazy for You (Theatre Calgary, Citadel Theatre), Mamma Mia (Citadel Theatre), and Singing in the Rain (Capitol Theatre). Alison is also an experienced vocalist with over a decade of professional experience including singing onstage with Josh Groban and Kenny Rogers. Alison has also worked on various film and TV projects, including The Waltz, a featured selection in the Toronto Short Film Festival and That Man, the winner of Dance Magazines Video of the Month.

In 2018, Alison shifted her focus from performing and began exploring her other artistic passions. Currently, Alison works at the Canadian College of Performing Arts in student support, events and productions. She also works as a freelance choreographer and director with various companies and studios throughout BC. Recent credits include Mamma Mia!, Beauty and the Beast (VOS), Classic Country Roads (Chemainus) and Spring Awakening (Phoenix Theatre).

After being a BC Provincial competitor herself over a decade ago in stage, ballet, and musical theatre, Alison is thrilled to be back teaching these workshops and sharing her passion for theatre jazz with all the aspiring performers.

About CCPA

The Canadian College of Performing Arts (CCPA)

(<https://www.ccpacanada.com/>)

is built on education, artistic excellence, and community.

Our three unique conservatory style post-secondary training programs offer emerging artists intensified skill-based alternatives to academically oriented university programs. Classes are rigorous and offered to the highest professional standards by elite faculty and guest artists, to produce well-rounded performing artists of exceptional caliber with a strong work ethic and business acumen.

Founded in 1998, the College has over 650 alumni who have successfully entered the industry as performers and active artistic leaders. As one of the most uniquely focused training programs in western Canada, the College has brought hundreds of artists together in collaboration as coaches, educators, and trainers. Having an institution like the College in Victoria BC, national in its scope and ambition, is a rare gateway for emerging Canadian artists to find success in the professional performing arts industry.

- Our graduates are performers: working on nearly every stage in Canada, on Broadway, and in film, television and recording studios.
  - Our graduates are creators: writers, composers, and choreographers adapting their art form to the ever-changing mediums of performance.
  - Our graduates are arts administrators: leading Canada's cultural community.
  - Our graduates are teachers and mentors: nurturing the artists of tomorrow.
  - 85% of our graduates reported working professionally or continuing studies one year after graduating.
